

1995 MARK MEETING AGENDA

Portland, Oregon
February 16, 1995

1. General Business Items (page 1)
2. Status of CWT Data Files and Reporting Backlogs (page 2)
3. Status of RMPC Operations (page 3)
4. Request to Mass Mark Snake River Chinook with the Adipose-only Clip (page 8)
5. Pending Legislation for Mass Marking (page 9)
6. Proposed Endorsement of the Conclusions and Recommendations of the PSC Study on Selective Fisheries (page 13)
7. Washington and Oregon Proposal to Mass Mark 1995 Brood Coho (page 13)
8. Report on the PSC Workshop on Hatchery CWT Methodology (page 16)
9. Coordination of Otolith Marking Programs (page 17)
10. Severe Budget Cuts in California and Impacts on CDFG's CWT Programs (page 17)
11. Update on Experiments to Evaluate Potential Mass Marks (page 18)
 - A. Laser Marking
 - B. Automated System for Mass Marking
 - C. Ventral Clips as Potential Mass Marks
12. Depth and Location Placement of CWTs in Large Chinook (page 21)
13. Agency Reports on Tagging Plans for 1995 (page 22)
14. Update on 1994 High Seas Sampling Program (page 22)
15. Update on Activities of PSC Working Group on Data Standards (page 23)
16. Regeneration of the Adipose Fin (page 24)
17. Quality Control Issues of CWT Marking and Sampling (page 26)
 - A. Correlation between 'No Tag' and Poor Tag Placement
 - B. Problems with Reused CWT Tagcodes and Naturally Occurring "Ad Clips"
18. Advances in Coded Wire Tag Technology (page 28)
19. Fin Mark Allocations for 1995 (page 29)

